$200 FINE FOR BOMB HOAX

Expelled youth rings up head

A youth was fined $200 in the Williamstown Court last Thursday for a bomb hoax telephone trick on the North Altona High School.

A PMG Department investigator told the court that the school had been troubled by a number of telephone hoaxes of this type and they had caused great concern to the principal, Mr. Roy Roberts.

Mr. G. Hoare, SM, said he had a duty to the community to deter others from making hoax calls as well as to punish the defendant. He thought that a substantial fine was the most appropriate penalty.

John William Alikakos, 18, of Hansen Street, North Altona, made a formal not-guilty plea to a charge under PMG regulations that he used a telephone to convey a fictitious message to the Altona High School on July 29 last.

Frederick Jones, PMG investigator, said the message to the school, at 11 a.m., was that a bomb was timed to go off at 11.30 a.m.

Call traced

The call was traced to the home of Alikakos' parents.

Jones went to the house later in the day and spoke to the defendant, who denied at first that he made the hoax call but admitted eventually that he did.

"I was under the influence at the time," he said, "I'd had a few cans.

"I was flipping through the phone book looking for work and I saw the number of the high school.

"I don't like the principal so I made a call to him."

To Mr. Hoare, Jones said the school was cleared for 40 minutes but only the PMG officers had been called because so many hoax calls had been made to the school before.

Alikakos was expelled from the school 18 months before and went to a private school.

Alikakos admitted convictions for car-stealing and unlicensed driving.

His lawyer said that when he had been in trouble before others had influenced him.

On the day he made the hoax call other boys were with him and encouraged him.

MISS VICTORIA IS COMING BACK

Miss Victoria, Ann Gilding, will make her second visit to Altona in four weeks on Thursday night, March 20.

She was guest of honor at the Altona Lions Club anniversary dinner on Wednesday, February 26.

This month, Ann will visit the Youth Centre calisthenics group to talk to the 70 members about the Spastic Children's Society. A short film will also be shown.

Dept. rejects school site

The proposed site for a special school in Mills Street, North Altona, is considered unsuitable by the Education Department.

The department has told Mr. A. W. Knight, MLC, that it believes the site unsuitable because of environmental factors.

The advice to Mr. Knight stated that a decision had been made to develop both the special school and, when required, a new technical school in McIntyre Road.

The department believes the technical school site is large enough to allow both developments to proceed without restriction.

The advice from the department was passed on to Altona Council and discussed at the last meeting.

Cr. Les Crofts said he believed the department's decision was right and moved that the advice be noted.

The council arranged for the district inspector of schools, Mr. T. J. Dunstone, to attend its next general purposes committee meeting to discuss future planning in the provision of educational facilities in the municipal-

Talks sought on Truganina development

The agents of Woodfar Nominees Pty. Ltd. have requested a conference with the Altona Council before a Town Planning Appeals hearing likely to influence the company's Truganina development proposal.

The agents, Land Sales May 1, will discuss the future of adjoining and Development Pty. grant of a land use permit crown land.

Ltd., have requested the for residential subdivision of the company's land conference with the council because they believe a united approach between their client and the council will be of the greatest importance at the hearing.

Cr. Les Crofts moved at the last council meeting that the matter be referred to the next general purposes committee meeting.

"I feel many aspects should be looked at in depth," he said. "I believe that in fairness to Woodfar Nominees the matter should be referred to the next general purposes meeting for further discussion."

The Town Planning Appeals hearing, deferred to

'Put lead back,' SM tells boys

The boys were looking for a ball on the roof of the Altona Primary School when they saw the sheet of lead.

The thought occurred to them that it was just right for sinkers. They took it, were seen by the caretaker and finished up in trouble. When Mr. G. Hoare, SM, heard this in Williams-town Court last week he asked Sergeant John Frame if he thought they really wanted it for sink-

The sergeant said he thought so.

"Hm," said Mr. Hoare. "It's a lot of fishing."

Seventeen-years-old Anthony, who looked younger, admitted that he and his younger companion stole the lead.

He told Mr. Hoare that they were playing in the school yard, got on the roof to retrieve their ball and saw the lead "lying loose". They took it on the spur of the moment.

He said he had fishing tackle.

"Where do you go fishing," said Mr. Hoare. "On the Altona Pier," replied Anthony.

ADJOURNED

"I'll adjourn this case for seven days so that you and your companion can put the lead back exactly where you found it," said Mr. Hoare.

"I am tempted to believe it was not just 'lying loose'."

"But I want to hear the end. You had better borrow a ladder. And don't forget, I want to see you back in court."

ALTONA PRIMARY
A total of 29 children obtained safe swimming certificates, equal to senior certificates, during the recent swimming course at Werribee pool.

And 46 previously non-swimmers gained primary schooling swim certificates.

The school is very pleased with the success of the programme.

Two youths caught on the roof of the school building are to be prosecuted for alleged damage.

The school finished in second place to Altona North in the recent swimming sports at St. Albans. The school gained 10 firsts, four seconds and two thirds — an excellent performance.

MOUNT ST. JOSEPH'S
A general meeting of the parents and friends of the college will be held on March 26 at 7.45 p.m.

ALTONA NORTH PRIMARY
The school gained first place in the district swimming sports, at St. Albans, with a total of 78½ points.

Those to gain first places at the sports were Elvis Gallina, Helen Abbott, Leanne Hosken, Janet Porter, Wayne Saunders, Nicole Jepsen, Tony Cornish, Joanne Rincinan, Robert Cutajar, Bonnie Harper and Graeme Math-er.

Three relay teams also gained first placings. They were the girls under-11, boys under-11 and boys under-12 teams.

Some of those successful go on to this week's divisional sports. It was the schools' first success at the sports.

SEAHOLME PRIMARY
The train of knowledge will leave Laver-ton at 9.10 a.m. on Monday for a five-day tour of the Western District of Victoria.

A total of 88 children will make the trip.

The school came fourth with 32½ points in the district swim sports at St. Albans, doing particularly well in diving.

Leslie Howden was first in the girls under-12 diving with Gordon McFarlane second. Jenny Young was second in the girls under-13 event with Sandy McFarlane first in boys under-13 dive.

Glenn Haines was first in the boys B-grade under-9 freestyle over 20 metres with Melinda Wilkins equal first in the girls event. Stephen Molner won the boys under-12 freestyle over 50 metres.

In cricket and softball the school defeated Williamstown North 53-49 at cricket and 17-14 at softball. Against Newport West the school lost 83-67 and 24-21.

ALTONA GATE PRIMARY

Members of the Mothers' Club held a working bee last week to prepare and process sequential library books for the infant grade.

Furniture for the art room arrived last week and swimming trials were conducted at Footscray pool for this week's regional swimming sports.

The room-three children toured Altona on Tuesday using two mini-buses provided by Altona North Technical School.

The after-school clubs programme has two interesting activities — a get-fit class and an English class, both for mothers.

ALTONA WEST PRIMARY

Student teacher trainees from the Melbourne State College have completed a three-weeks' course at the school in which they carried out various work in both audio-visual and maths equipment.

The trainees and some of the projects in which they participated were Anne Moore, creative drama; Jenny McArdle, beach project; Lilla Milotay, animals and their habits; Maria McAllel, life under the sea; Anne Davies, zoo project; Maureen Ulmer, zoo excursion, Sue McLeod, work with one child having a problem identified with color; Elizabeth Dobbie, maths sets and blocks; Julie Graham, remedial work in phonics; Glenn Knight, maths fraction kit.

Flower boxes

The condition of six flower boxes erected on the western boundary in Bor-rack Square shopping centre has been brought to the attention of Altona Council.

Altona Chamber of Commerce reported that five of the boxes bore no sign of plant life and one contained the "rather ill-treated remains of a tree".

The chamber suggested shrubs should be planted and tree guards placed around the boxes.

Council discussed also the possible erection of more public seating in the centre to deter people using the boxes as seats.

Big Don 'vents wrath' $250 fine for attack on woman

A strapping 23-year-old transport driver pushed his way into a Williamstown house and dusted up his "de facto" and her mother, the Williamstown Court was told last week.

Donald Costello, of Balacava Road, St. Kilda, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault occasioning grievous bodily harm and was fined $250, in default of one month's imprisonment.

It happened at 4.30 p.m. on January 6. Mrs. Marie Thomson, mother of six, said her eldest daughter, Kay told Costello he could come in. Mrs. Thomson told him to keep out.

"I know him," she told the court. "He has been living with Kay for about six months."

"I knew there would be a fight," she said. "That's all they ever do". "He hit me and he hit Kay. We both went down. She was bleeding. I was knocked into the buffet. He called me a dirty old (something) and I threw an ashtray".

Senior-Detective Bernie Dunn said that when he saw Mrs. Thomson she had a bruised left ear, a swollen left knee and a bandaged right arm. Costello, for whom a warrant was issued, went to the Williamstown police station voluntarily.

Pretty tangled

He said Mrs. Thomson was hurt when she fell through a plate-glass window. She interfered when he was having an argument with Kay.

It was a pretty tangled background, Mr. Joe Gullaci (for Costello) told the court.

Costello had a broken marriage. The lady (Kay) was a friend of his wife.

She was 30, with a child, 12, she had a broken marriage, too.

"They are not living together at the moment because of divorce proceedings but they intend to set up again — permanently".

"The defendant, on this occasion, seems to have vented his wrath on an elderly lady," said Mr. G. Hoare, SM.

"I take into account that he is of good appearance and of previously good character."

"But it is a matter of concern that a strong young man of his considerable stature should have taken to these two ladies, who, however, seem to be able to handle themselves, too."

Vandal shins up pipe

Someone shinned up a drainpipe and tore lead off the roof of the Presbyterian Church in Melbourne Road, Williamstown. And left the lead behind.

Another victim of a vandal was Mr. Norman Bernard. A council flashing warning light was thrown through a 13 ft. by 4 ft. plate-glass window at his estate agency office in Douglas Parade, Williamstown.

HOSPITAL RAFFLE

Altona District Hospital auxiliary has been granted permission by council to sell raffle tickets in the municipality during April and May.

HELLO GIRLS,

Tired of shiny creams, oily lotions, giving that hot and flustered look to your face this summer?

Half way through the day do you find yourself admiring everybody's make-up, and dissatisfied with your own reflection?

No need to any longer. You too can enter the room looking calm, placid and skin beautiful. No one will ever know the rush you had to be there on time.

I'm speaking about Cyclax new light liquid foundations. Five shades of oil-free powder-based liquid foundation, especially suitable for normal or oily skin.

Not a powder base in a cream, but you'll notice in a liquid. So you can spread a light foundation that covers ever no discreetly and with a little matte finish, remember Cyclax day lotion — ?

Girls, light liquid foundation is a very sensible make-up to use if you have an oily skin problem, blemishes or acne.

Keep it in mind to ask us to show you, let you try Cyclax foundation. It is different.

The majority of us now apply some kind of color or highlighter to our hair. We always admire a good sheen and style, and this enhanced by an interesting color looks fabulous.

Have you noticed your color dulls with hair spray, or even the shampoo you are using — is stripping out your color?

There are correct type shampoos, conditioners and sprays that help you to contain your color you know. It is worth trying these. Steiner for example.

Steiner Color Highlight Shampoos come in natural ash — to highlight your bleached blonds shade and also to enhance grey hair, toning out that yellowish tinge. Auburn lights highlights brunettes and auburn hair, or Copper highlights gives a lighter glimmer to auburn, brunettes or light brown hair.

Then Gold lights will look good now that your hair is a lighter brown or your blonde hair is paler.

This shampoo can be used in place of your usual shampoo, or can be left on for between 5-15 minutes for extra color.

Another of Steiners popular products is Serbo-syn. A cream conditioner that nourishes your hair to shining beauty.

That's all for now.

'Bye.

Resident advises Altona Council

Altona Council has declared its appreciation of advice by a resident relating to shopping centre and vacant block problems in the Altona North area.

Cr. Pat Lynch said the resident, Mr. K. Small, of Millers Road, North Altona should be given full credit for a letter bringing problems to the attention of council.

A letter to Mr. Small expressing council's appreciation was suggested by Cr. Ray Richards.

Cr. Ted Hubble told council he would like to see the matters raised by Mr. Small referred to a general purposes committee meeting.

Observations

Mr. Small's letter included the following observations:

● The main problems regarding Bor-rack Square shopping centre are the rear of Sims Supermarket and front of the post office and children's play area. On the north-east corner of Sims there appears to be a continuous problem with unloading trucks and where they actually park, causing traffic infringements and hindering pedestrians. This is a hazard for motorists entering and leaving the Square, and for the shoppers with prams and small children who are on foot —

In front of the Altona North post office and in front of the main shopping centre, there are tubs which would be better replaced with strongly constructed seats. More refuse bins would also help the litter and drink can problem.

The Ross Road shopping area is a shambles, with footpaths leading to the shops badly broken, vacant blocks overgrown and very untidy with weeds and rubbish. New-styled refuse bins could be added and better positioned when concreting of nature strips is completed. A seat or two at this location could be a step in the right direction.

Vacant blocks are a continuing annual problem. The once-a-year attempted cleaning of this vacant land is not the answer as they are not only fire hazards in the summer months but miniature tips throughout the year.

● Could the Ross Road-Gilligan Road school site be leased or purchased from the Education Department, as 20 years is a long time with nothing eventuating. It could be used for an elderly citizens' club, scouting activities, tennis courts, or other needs in this locality.

HE DENIES 'FIXATION' ABOUT ALTONA LADS

Pizza man throws $100 punch

A dapper little Altona pizza man, vigorously conducting his own defence, failed in the Williamstown Court last Thursday to beat a charge of assaulting a youth in Pier Street.

ALTONA MEN SEE BRIDGE

Altona Councillors invited recently to inspect the West Gate bridge construction were impressed with the project.

Cr. Crofts said that although very little progress could be seen by the public, those who had made the inspection tour had found it quite enlightening.

Cr. Crofts also referred in his report to the council of a meeting with the leader of the Federal Opposition, Mr. Snedden.

He said Mr. Snedden had assured him the council would continue to receive government money in the event of a change of government.

Mr. Snedden had said he regarded the three levels of government as partners, not different tiers but one government in which all arms of government could work together.

Cr. Crofts said it was gratifying to note that both political parties were acknowledging the difficulties local government was facing at present.

Nurse for infants

Altona Council has approved the appointment of Sister Elizabeth Bunting as sister-in-charge of the infant welfare centre in Murphy Street, Altona North.

Sister Bunting has recently held the position of relieving sister at the centre. The appointment is subject to Department of Health approval.

Thirty-seven-years-old Giacomo Ranieri swore that the youth, Glen Stringer, 17, of Purnell Street, Altona, first assaulted him, abused him — "bloody Wog" — and had previously caused trouble in and outside his pizza shop.

Ranieri was fined $100 for assault and ordered to pay $10 costs.

He was fined $30 for careless driving. Mr. G. Hoare, SM, amended to "careless" a dangerous driving charge. Stringer claimed that Ranieri drove a car at him soon after their earlier brush.

Stringer told the court he was walking in Pier Street at 10.20 a.m. on Tuesday, February 4, and was suddenly struck on the side of the face from behind.

He saw his attacker was Ranieri who yelled at him. Stringer said he broke away and got into his mother's car. His only injury was a cut lip.

His mother drove to the medical clinic, where he had an appointment. As he got out of the car and stepped on to the road, Ranieri, in a car, tried to run him over.

Went to police

He said Ranieri's car was doing about 20 miles an hour.

His mother then drove to the police station.

He said he knew Ranieri as the proprietor of a pizza parlor which he had visited at times but he hadn't been there for six months.

He told Mr. Hoare that he'd never been in trouble.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Stringer, in a quiet burr, said she saw Glen and Ranieri fighting and supported his account of Ranieri's driving.

Ranieri gave evidence that Stringer was one of a number of youths who'd made trouble in and out of his shop.

He was shopping with his mother on February 4 when Stringer insulted him and said he'd "fix me."

"I was punched several times on the head," he said. "I had blood on the nose."

Mr. Hoare: Did your mother see it?

Ranieri: Yes.

She's not here? — No.

Why? — She is old ... 70 ... and sick.

Mr. Hoare: But she could go shopping ...

A fixation?

Ranieri denied driving his car at Stringer. He said he did have to swerve as he passed the Stringers' car, but he was forced over by a car coming in the other direction.

Sergeant John Frame (prosecuting) said: "Have you got a bit of a fixation about the young people in Altona?"

Ranieri denied this.

When Mr. Hoare announced his findings he said he took into account that Ranieri believed, rightly or wrongly, that he had been the victim of provocation.

Mr. Hoare asked Ranieri if he had anyone in court with him and an attractive woman stood and walked forward.

"I am a faith healer," she said. "I help his mother."

Mr. Hoare: I am concerned that he is perhaps psychologically unwell ... Faith healer (loudly): No, no. He is not.

Police said Ranieri had not offended before.

The sweet tears of success

Youth grabs girl, swears —fined $100

An offensive-behavior charge heard at Footscray Court last Thursday bordered on being an assault, the magistrate, Mr. J. Wallace said.

Evidence had been given the man charged ran to a group of youths and girls, grabbed a girl by the shoulders, shook her and pushed her over the bonnet of a car.

The man swore a number of times before and during the incident, Mr. Wallace was told.

Phillip Michael Tribe, of Marion Street, Altona North, pleaded guilty to offensive behavior and indecent language charges.

Mr. Wallace fined him $60, in default six days imprisonment, on the behavior charge and $40, or four days, on the swearing count.

Senior-Detective Bruce Hindson, of Footscray CIB, gave evidence he was on patrol in Melbourne Road, Newport, about 11.20 p.m. on Saturday, March 1.

He and the policeman with him checked a pizza parlor and afterwards, as they were walking down Melbourne Road, he heard shouting and swearing. He saw Tribe run toward a group of youths and girls, shouting and swearing.

He grabbed one girl by the shoulders and began to shake her. By the time he and his partner reached the group, Tribe had forced the girl over the bonnet of the car and was swearing.

The noise was so loud people in the pizza parlor went out to see what was happening. Sen-Det. Hindson said.

The girl was apparently a former girl friend, he added. Tribe had been drinking but was not drunk.

Detective Sergeant W. T. Thompson, of Footscray CIB, prosecuted. Tribe was not represented by counsel.

It was all too much for young Kerry Wooding last week when she won the Miss Altona Little Athletics contest ... she broke down and cried.

Now she has won her way into the State finals of the quest.

On Saturday she topped the contestants in the regional final, held at Melton, and will face the judges once again at the Kew Civic Centre on April 18, for the Victorian final.

Kerry, 11, a member of the Westons Little Athletics Club, is the daughter of Bill and Margaret Wooding, of Seagull Avenue.

Council will acquire land

Altona Council will acquire compulsorily land needed for the widening of Queen Street, Altona Meadows.

At its meeting on November 12 last year, the council noted the need to undertake compulsory acquisition in the event that no sale by agreement was possible.

The lots to be compulsorily acquired on section 4 on lodged plan of subdivision No. 1205, parish of Truganina are:

Altona confident in bowls semi

by Alan Burkitt

Footscray Park by 56 shots.

Top rink was: R. Douglas (S); A. Stafford, P. Kelly and A. Caldwell, who won 45-18.

Scores: A1 Altona 66, lost to Werribee 111.

Reserves 2 Altona 108, defeated Middle Park 64.

B4 Altona 139, defeated Footscray Park 83.

B5 won on a forfeit from Ormond Park. Although the team was battling all the year for players, they finished in second place and earned promotion for next season.

The secretary of the RVBA, Mr. John Dobbie, said after last Wednesday's State pairs final that Altona's greens were equal to any in the metropolis.

On Saturday evening club members held a smorgasbord at the club house.

The large crowd was entertained by Mal Meikle.

Eighty-one year old Mrs. Villiers, (mother of D. A. Nicholls) played music for dancing and didn't even miss a beat when the lights failed.

The Altona women's C1 pennant side were beaten in the semi-final by about 30 shots.

Altona's Reserve 2 side will go into Saturday's bowls semi-final full of confidence after a series of easy wins in the final games of this year's pennant competition.

On Saturday, they beat Middle Park by 42 shots.

With many more than the 16 players necessary for selection being eligible for Saturday's game, the selectors have to pick four balanced rinks.

After two years in the A1 section, Altona's top side, has been relegated to A2 for next season.

Narrow losses early in the season, and the loss of top skipper, Syd Carton, through illness, led to their downfall.

On Saturday, they faced the strong Werribee team with four rinks, consisting of many bowlers, new to A1, and were easily beaten.

The B4 side, crushed

'Knockout' lacrosse

The 1974-75 box lacrosse season will culminate with a lightning premiership at Fearon Reserve, Williamstown, next Tuesday, starting at 7.30 p.m.

Eight teams will compete in the 10-minute "knock-out" matches. Equal favorites for the premiership are the Seawasps, captained by Ron Twomey of Williamstown, and the Stingrays led by John Nolan of Footscray.

But surprises could come from the Whales, led by Mick Orr or the Marlins' team, which includes last year's world series players Alan Rolley and Greg Garnsworthy, of Williamstown.

Williamstown Lacrosse Club invites anyone interested in box lacrosse to attend the games. Admittance is free.

BASEBALLERS AT OAKLEIGH

By "Hook"

The Newport Baseball Club will play two practice games against Oakleigh Baseball Club at Calcola Reserve, Oakleigh, on Saturday.

The first game, at 12.15, will be combined seniors and thirds. Team to be picked from R. Bunting, A. White, Lees, Winter, Lee, D. Forrestes, M. Lynch, James, Eckhart, Bell, Smith, Joy, Scott, Wass, Thatcher and Merriman.

The second game, at Oakleigh and Newport A.

The Newport squad is W. Greenwood, S. Bury, R. 2.15 p.m. will be between Simpson, R. Ferris, L.

Home, Lynch, B. Cleary, S. Bunting and Lavison.

A bus will leave the Newport club room at 10.15 a.m. Barbecue facilities will be available at the grounds, but bring your own meat.

In cricket, the Newport Baseball Cricket Club met St. Paul's College in the first semi-final at Williamstown.

At stumps, St. Paul's were 8/59. G. Cramp 20, P. Merille 15 (J. Armstrong 4/24, K. Hansen 3/17).

NBCC were 203. N. Micheal 12, K. Hansen 51, R. Allen 19, J. Taylor 30, not out (C. Barron 3/45, P. McDonald 3/32, E. Verdino 4/33).

On the social scene, the battle of the women members at cricket ended in a disputed win to the baseballers by four runs.

In a game governed by two overs per bowler and 12 overs for batting, there were some classic shots yet to be printed in cricket manuals.

The women cricketers made a total of 45 and the baseballers got a disputed 49.

CASSETTE STOLEN

Housewife Anne Burley, of the Wiltona hostel, Koroit Creek Road, Williamstown, lent her car to another person, who drove to town and back. She found that a cassette combination valued at $65 was stolen while the car was away.

Moomba hockey win

The Altona Hockey Club won the second division of the Moomba carnival.

Altona also has had a good opening to the season by winning seven out of eight matches and drawing one.

The best players at the carnival were S. Jensen, G.

A2 Newport 1 79, Caulfield South 100; A Reserve 2 100, Footscray Park 78; B2 Newport 3 107, Thornbury 115; B2 Newport 4 107, Essendon 93; B4 Newport 5 87, Moonee Ponds 111; B6 Newport 6 85, Yarra-Seddon 107; C3 Newport 7 69, Coburg 89; C4 Newport 8 50, Keilor 70.

A successful Hazeldean Day, organised by the associates at Newport, on February 27, raised $150 for the appeal for funds to build a home for the frail aged.

Winning rink — Melba White (S) Tom Parkinson, Thelma Watson, Alice Price. Runner-up, Pat Luke, Nancy Shore, Jessie Smith, Grace Depiazza.

In the semi-finals of the president's trophy, Basil Reece defeated Barry Quigley, and Max Hammond beat Ray Smith. In the final, Reece beat Hammond by one shot. Both are former club champions.

Semi-finalists in the Fitzpatrick trophy were Marty Walsh, Albert Walker, Bert King, Bill McLaren. Walker and McLaren will contest the final next Sunday March 16.

Arthur Bury and Len Duggan will contest the final of the Carroll trophy.

A semi-finalist in the recent club championship, Arthur Bury, eliminated Barry Quigley in the first semi-final, while Len Duggan beat club president Arthur Shepherd in the other semi.

Quigley has reached the semi-final of three title events.

The final of the Bell Cup will be contested between Stella Rogash, current club champion, and vice-president Neil Hopper. Losing semi-finalists were Mary Daniel and Pat King.
